

A White Catholic's Guide to Race and Privilege with Fr. Daniel Horan, Notre Dame

November 15, 2022

London, ON – Daniel Horan, OFM, PhD comes to King's to speak on "Look Again – A White Catholic's Guide to Racism and Privilege" on November 17 at 7 p.m. His presentation is the annual Christ the King Lecture and will take place in the Joanne and Peter Kenny Theatre, in the King Student Life Centre. The free event is open to the public and is hosted by King's Campus Ministry. Parking is available on campus.

Fr. Daniel's says his upbringing as a white, middle-class Catholic shielded him from seeing the persistent, pervasive racism all around him. Drawing on his award-winning text, he shares what he has since learned about uncovering and combatting racial inequity in our nation and in the Church, urging us to join the fight.

His two latest books provide content for his talk at King's: A White Catholic's Guide to Racism and Privilege and The Way of the Franciscans: A Prayer Journey Through Lent. Fr. Daniel regularly lectures around the United States and abroad and serves on a number of university, academic, and publication editorial boards. He is co-host of The Francis Effect Podcast. He is also a columnist for the National Catholic Reporter. He is the author of fourteen books, including Catholicity and Emerging Personhood: A Contemporary Theological Anthropology which received the 2020 First Place Award for Theology Book from the Association of Catholic Publisher.

Currently a Professor of Philosophy, Religious Studies and Theology and Director of the Center for Spirituality at Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Indiana, Fr. Dan Horan previously held the Dun Scotus Chair of Spirituality at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago.
