

Who is the greatest King's graduate you know?
King's University College Alumni Award of Distinction
Call for Nominations

The King's University College Alumni Award of Distinction celebrates achievement, commitment and service to the community.

There are many talented King's alumni who deserve to be recognized for their outstanding achievements. If you know a King's graduate whose contributions enhance his or her community and who is an inspiration to those who know them, please take a few minutes to submit a nomination.

Selection Criteria

Nominees must demonstrate a strong commitment to others through contributions to his or her community or society, and be recognized by peers as having reached a high level of accomplishment/expertise in his or her field.

To be eligible, the nominee must be a graduate of King's University College, London, Ontario, and consent to the nomination. Current Board members are not eligible for selection.

The Alumni Award of Distinction is presented at the annual Homecoming festivities. The recipient must be in attendance to receive this award.

Putting forward a nomination

To nominate a graduate for the Alumni Award of Distinction, please submit a personal letter of support explaining why you think your nominee should be recognized. The letter should address the accomplishments of the nominee as outlined in the selection criteria.

Nominations will stand for 36 months. Alumni may be nominated posthumously, in which case a representative can accept the award. Self-nominations will be accepted with a written letter of support from someone known to the nominee.

Selection Process

The Award Selection Committee will be formed to review and grade nominations. One recipient shall be chosen. However, in exceptional circumstances two recipients will be considered. The decision of the committee will be final.

Closing Date for Nominations: June 30

Please send your nomination to: alumni@kings.uwo.ca or mail to:
