French Bienvenue à King's!

What is French?

French at King's is so much more than a language. It is a cultural expedition, an experience of interactions and communications with the rest of the world, an exploration of arts, literature and film in the Francophone context. The French program at King's prepares students for exchanging opinions and communicating freely in a globalized world. Students who graduate from the French program at King's with a qualifying average are offered guaranteed admission to Western's Faculty of Education.
