Diversity at King's University College

2SLGBTQIA+

This online resource hub supports students who identify as a part of this community along with allies about resources within the Western and London community.

BLACK, INDIGENOUS AND PEOPLE OF COLOUR

Shifting Perspectives hosts a BIPOC student support group in collaboration with the KUCSC & Student Affairs. This group meets twice a week and is open to all BIPOC students, and occasionally welcomes allies to join in the discussion.

INDIGENOUS

Partnered with Western, King's is committed to supporting Indigenous students in reaching their highest potential through providing many community initiatives and programs year-long.

MATURE STUDENTS

King's recognizes that mature students return to school for a variety of reasons and offers a mature student transition program and a variety of resources for mature students.

MULTI-FAITH

While King's is a Catholic college, it recognizes students come from all beliefs and backgrounds, offering interfaith resources and sacred spaces on campus.

ACCESSIBILITY

Every student has the right to access success! Committed to providing an accessible and barrier-free learning environment, King's offers a variety of accessibility services.

WELLNESS & EQUITY

Western Student Experience contributes to the development of a more supportive, inclusive and thriving campus that empowers all students to achieve their full potential.
