

ENGLISH

 Honours Specialization in English Language and Literature

 Major in English Language and Literature

Minor in English for Teachers
Minor in English Language and Literature
Minor in General English

Why Choose Our English Program?

Turn your love for literature into a vibrant career. Join the English Language and Literature program and start your adventure today! You'll journey through the rich landscape of English literature, covering all the major historical periods of English from medieval to contemporary and including Canadian, British, American, and Postcolonial. You will explore literature with courses in literary theory, drama, popular culture, film, children's literature, creative writing, and more.

By immersing yourself in these courses, you'll develop strong skills in analysis, writing, and public speaking. You will be prepared for a variety of professions, including careers in education, publishing, law, marketing, media and communications, public relations, business, and industry.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

1. Diverse Curriculum:

Study literature from a variety of historical periods and cultural contexts.

2. Critical Thinking Skills:

Develop strong analytical skills through the examination of texts and their cultural implications.

3. Focus on Writing Skills:

Develop the succinct and persuasive writing skills that employers and graduate programs demand.

4. Creative Writing Opportunities:

Hone your writing skills in courses focused on fiction, poetry, and non-fiction.

5. Wide Range of Courses:

Explore topics such as literary theory, drama, creative writing, cultural studies, film, and postcolonialism.

6. Experiential Learning:

Gain real-world knowledge through our various field trips (theatre performance, museum visits) and real-world experiences through our ecological projects, creative writing workshops, and collaborative learning environment.

7. Dedicated Faculty:

Learn from passionate professors who are committed to mentoring and inspiring students to develop their own unique potential.

8. Interdisciplinarity:

Join the King's Scholar enrichment program, which combines courses in English, History, and Philosophy.

I chose King's because I wanted a place that offered both a quality education and a supportive community. Throughout my time here, I have been able to connect deeply with faculty and friends in a way that feels truly unique to King's. I don't feel like just a student here, I feel like I belong to a community. At King's, you grow into who you become and then they let you fly."

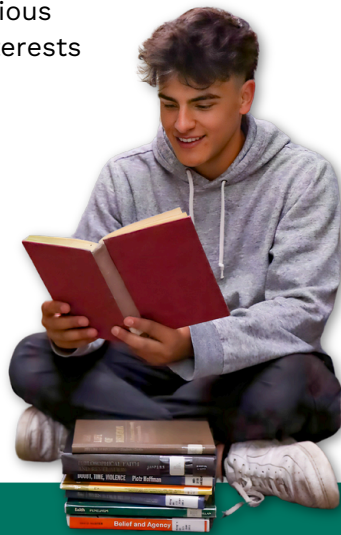

– Morgan DeCampos, Year 5 Honours Specialization in English Language and Literature

First-Year Courses:

- English 1020E: Introduction to Literature
- English 1024E: Forms of Fiction: Introduction to Narrative
- English 1027F: The Storyteller's Art 1
- English 1028G: The Storyteller's Art 2, Climate Change Fiction
- Additional Electives: Explore various electives that align with your interests and future studies.

For more detailed information on specific courses, including descriptions and prerequisites, you can refer to the Western Academic Calendar and the relevant program pages.

Career and Pathway Opportunities:

Graduates from the English program are well-equipped to pursue careers in various fields, including:

- Education: teacher or educator in schools and institutions.
- Writing and Publishing: editor, copywriter, content creator, screenwriter.
- Media and Communications: journalist, public relations specialist.
- Social Services: community outreach coordinator, program coordinator.
- Further Studies: graduate programs in English, creative writing, education, law, and more.

KING'S UNIVERSITY SMALL CAMPUS. BIG EXPERIENCE.

APPLY NOW!

Visit us online for application details, admission requirements, and program deadlines.

LEARN MORE

futurestudents.kings.uwo.ca
266 Epworth Avenue
London, ON N6A 2M3 Canada
1.800.265.4406 or 519.433.3491
info@kings.uwo.ca

@kingsatwestern

@kingsatwestern

kingsatwestern

kingsatuwo