

4492A (570)
DISCURSIVE POWER AND "DANGEROUS" BODIES
Fall 2026

Instructor: K. Prince
Email: kprince6@uwo.ca

---

Course Information

Calendar Description:

This course critically explores intersections between power, discourse, knowledge, and bodily experiences.

Pre-requisite(s): Any course in Childhood and Youth Studies at the 3300-level.

Anti-requisite(s):

Extra Information: 3 lecture/tutorial hours.

Course Weight: 0.50

Breadth: Category A

Subject Code: Childhood and Youth Studies

Notice: Unless you have either the requisites for this course (fulfilment of pre-requisites, no anti-requisite conflicts), or special permission from your Dean to enrol in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

King's University College
CYS: 4492A
DISCURSIVE POWER AND "DANGEROUS" BODIES
Fall 2026

Course information:

Course Name, Number, Section: Discursive Power and "Dangerous" Bodies, CYS 4492A, Section 570
Instructor(s): Kira Prince
Contact Information: kprince6@uwo.ca
Office hours: TBD

Course description: This course critically explores intersections between power, discourse, knowledge, and bodily experiences. Focusing on "normalcy," we look at how bodies and corresponding childhoods are included, excluded, shaped, and constructed—particularly those of neurodivergent queer youth. Intersectionality, rights, participation, neuroqueering, and critical disability studies inform the analysis.

Course learning outcomes:

During the course and by the end of it, students will engage with the following learning objectives:

- LO2 - CYS students become familiar with interdisciplinary approaches to childhood and learn to evaluate and distinguish between them. Those who complete an HSP come to understand how these approaches intersect with other fields and disciplines, and formulate their own research questions in upper division seminars.
- LO 8 – CYS Students make critical use of scholarly reviews and primary sources.
- LO 9 – CYS students gain the ability to communicate accurate information and clear arguments orally and in writing.
- LO 10 – CYS Students respect the limits to their own knowledge. They appreciate how uncertainty, ambiguity, and limits to knowledge might influence analyses and interpretations.
- LO 11 – CYS students work effectively with others and take personal responsibility for their actions when part of a team. They take initiative and maintain behavior consistent with academic integrity, community involvement, and social responsibility.
- Evaluate and contribute critically to public discourse.
- Understand and utilize current sociopolitical concepts related to related theories and frameworks.
- Engage in critical discourse analysis.
- Practice critical reflection.
- Develop competency in critical theory, including critical disability studies.
- Grow understandings of power, discourse, and knowledge.
- Explore personal connections and interests to course concepts to prepare for future, professional practice.
- Strengthen collaboration, critical thinking, and interpersonal communication skills.

Mode of Instruction: Online synchronous Wednesdays 6:30 PM – 9:30 PM EST

Course textbooks/materials:

- Technical requirements for the course include a stable internet connection and a computer with a working microphone and webcam.
- All readings will be provided to students as PDFs.

Method of evaluation:

| Assignment            | Weight | Due Date                               |
|-----------------------|--------|----------------------------------------|
| Initial reflection    | 15%    | October 2, 2026                        |
| Discourse analysis    | 20%    | November 6, 2026                       |
| Presentation          | 25%    | Either November 25 or December 2, 2026 |
| Final reflection      | 25%    | December 9, 2026                       |
| Ongoing participation | 15%    | Ongoing throughout the semester |

- All written assignments are due by 11:59 PM.
- Presentations must be submitted on Brightspace by the beginning of class (6:30 PM EST) on the presentation date.
- A bonus 1% will be added to the student's overall grade if proof of engagement with The Write Place is provided. The purpose of this opportunity is to promote engagement with community resources and develop collaboration skills that align with standards of academic integrity.

Academic Considerations:

- Students are encouraged to reach out to the professor if any accommodations are desired, beyond registration with Accessibility Services.

Academic Integrity / Remote Proctoring:

- Link to Western Scholastic Discipline policy:
- https://www.google.com/url?client=internal-element-cse&cx=013266746113315494840:xq6zhlrbloa&q=https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/schloff.pdf&sa=U&ved=2ahUKEwjJ2brM0oeWAXUOGFkFHRm1FJ0QFnoECAkQAQ&usq=AOvVaw0VfJIO2uA-eTkIgL6kroll&fexp=121575042,121575040
- Intentional usage of artificial intelligence or language generation or translation applications by students to summarize readings or complete assigned work for this course must be approved by the instructor and noted by the student in the submitted work itself. This mandate does not refer to aspects of AI programming embedded into applications such as Word, Chrome, etc. It applies to all intentional usage of AI as a 'co-reader' or 'co-writer.' Students must do their own reading and writing to construct their own voices as democratic citizens. They are not allowed to write text and feed it into a computer application to improve it or translate it. Asking an application to compose text and then changing words before submitting it as your own, constitutes plagiarism. The use of Grammarly or similar applications is prohibited. Using plagiarism checkers to see if plagiarized text has been altered enough to avoid detection is itself a form of academic dishonesty. Students must compose text, choose words, construct logic flow, structure sentences and paragraphs using their own minds and in response to what they read, hear, and experience. When you borrow words or ideas from another person or from a machine this must be placed in quotation marks and properly cited.

- Notice on Turnitin (if using)

Schedule of Classes, Readings, Assessments:

- See Course Outline Memo for this year's academic calendar dates

| Week/Date   | Topic                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Additional concerns                                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| September 9, 2026  | Course introductions and normality                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| September 16, 2026 | Initial theoretical frameworks part 1: Neurodiversity+                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | September 17 is the last day to add a first-term half-course or full course.                                                                                                        |
| September 23, 2026 | Initial theoretical frameworks part 2: Critical disability studies+                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| September 30, 2026 | National Truth and Reconciliation Day (no classes)                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Initial reflection due on October 2, 2026 by 11:59 PM                                                                                                                               |
| October 7, 2026    | Discourse and discourse analysis                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| October 14, 2026   | Reading week – no class!                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| October 21, 2026   | Intersectionality and intersectional considerations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| October 28, 2026   | Institutional harm and empowerment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| November 4, 2026   | Culture and media representation                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Discourse analysis due by November 6, 2026, 11:59 PM                                                                                                                                |
| November 11, 2026  | Youth rights, participation, and protection                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| November 18, 2026  | Youth digital practices and online identities                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| November 25, 2026  | Class presentationsDue to fewer classes this Semester, slides on “Empowerment, justice, resistance, and “liberation”” will be distributed. A discussion post will be open for additional participation marks (optional and due by December 2, 2026, at 11:59 PM EST). | November 30 is the last day to withdraw from a Winter 12-week course. Courses withdrawn from will result in a grade of “WDN” (withdrawn, without academic penalty) on a transcript. |
| December 2, 2026   | Class presentations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Optional discussion post due 11:59 PM                                                                                                                                               |

|                  |                |                                  |
|------------------|----------------|----------------------------------|
|                  |                |                                  |
| December 9, 2026 | Course wrap-up | Final reflection due by 11:59 PM |

KING'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
GENERAL COURSE POLICIES
2026-27

---

1. Academic Accommodations (Accessibility)

Accessibility Services works to ensure that academic programs are accessible to all students, and supports students who may have a condition related to, but not limited to, vision, hearing, mobility, different ways of learning, mental health, chronic illnesses, chronic pain, autism spectrum disorder, ADD/ADHD, and temporary conditions (beyond short-term academic consideration). Accessibility Services provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive assessment. The accommodation policy can be found here Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities. Information on Accessibility Services at King's can be found here.

2. Academic Consideration for Student Absences

Students must be approved to write a makeup exam or for an extension of the assignment deadline. If you need to miss an exam or the deadline for the assignment, please follow these instructions.

There are two ways to seek academic consideration:

(i) Academic consideration based on medical or compassionate grounds

If a student is unable to meet a course requirement due to substantial but temporary extenuating circumstances (medical or compassionate grounds), they should contact the Academic Advising Office. As a rule, documentation is required for academic consideration.

For academic consideration requests on medical grounds, the Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is the appropriate documentation. The SMC is available at <https://registrar.uwo.ca/academics/pdfs/student-medical-certificate.pdf>

- King's students: The Academic Advising Office website is located in DLH 104. The Academic Advising website is <https://mykings.ca/intranet/app/#/academics/academic-advising>.
- If your home faculty is Huron or at Western, please submit your documentation to your faculty's academic counselling office.
- Requests must be made as soon as possible and no later than 48 hours after the missed assessment.

You may submit requests for academic consideration through the Student Absence Portal, linked on this website: <https://mykings.ca/intranet/app/#/academics/academic-advising/academic-consideration-requests-and-student-absence-portal>

(ii) Academic consideration through an undocumented absence

Students are permitted one academic consideration request without supporting documentation per term per half-course (0.5) weight.

- Note that instructors may designate one assessment per half-course weight as requiring formal supporting documentation. Please refer to the course outline to confirm this assessment.
- If instructors have built flexibility into their assessments, this flexibility will already address consideration needs. (For example, if students need to submit X of Y assignments, this flexibility already provides consideration.)
- Undocumented absences can not be used as the basis for academic consideration for December or April exams.

For further information on the academic consideration policy, please see https://uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/academic\_consideration\_Sep24.pdf

c) Absences from Final Exams

If you miss the Final Exam, contact your Academic Advising Office as soon as you are able to do so. They will assess your eligibility to write the “Special Examination” (the name given by the University to a makeup Final Exam).

You may also be eligible to write the Special Exam if you are in a multiple exam situation (i.e., you are scheduled to write more than 2 exams in 23-hour period, or more than 3 exams in a 47-hour period).

If a student fails to write a scheduled Special Examination, the date of the next Special Examination (if granted) normally will be the scheduled date for the final exam the next time this course is offered. The maximum course load for that term will be reduced by the credit of the course(s) for which the final examination has been deferred. See the Academic Calendar for details (under Special Examinations).

d) Religious Accommodations

Students should consult the University’s list of recognized religious holidays, and should give notice in writing to the instructor and their Academic Advising Office if a course requirement will be affected by a religious holiday/observance. Notice must be given as early as possible, and no later than two weeks prior to an examination, and one week prior to a midterm test date. It is the responsibility of such students to inform themselves concerning the work done in classes from which they are absent and to take appropriate action.

3. Support Services

Accessibility, Counselling and Student Development at King’s University College:
<https://mykings.ca/intranet/app/#/student-supports-and-services/accessibility-services>

Students experiencing emotional or mental health distress can access services at King’s University College: <https://kings.uwo.ca/campus-life/student-supports/>

Good2talk is an online and phone resource for students, available 24/7, with services in English, Mandarin, and French: <https://good2talk.ca>, 1-866-925-5454

Western’s Mental Health Services site provides a complete list of options on how to obtain help: <https://www.uwo.ca/health/mental-health/index.html>

Academic Support Services at King's University College: <https://kings.uwo.ca/academics/academic-supports/>

4. Statement on Gender-Based Sexual Violence

King's and Western are committed to reducing incidents of gender-based sexual violence (GBSV) and providing compassionate support to anyone who is going through or has gone through these traumatic events. If you are experiencing or have experienced GBSV (either recently or in the past), you will find information about support services for survivors, including emergency contacts at the following website: Mental Health and Wellness at King's.

You can reach supports at King's by emailing care@kings.uwo.ca or calling 519-930-4640 to reach a Social Worker who can offer help.

You can also reach Western's Gender-Based Violence & Survivor Support Case Manager by email (health@uwo.ca) or by calling 519-661-3568. Additional support services can be found <https://www.uwo.ca/health/gbsv/support/index.html>

5. Statement on Use of Electronic Devices

Use of Electronic Devices: Unless explicitly stated otherwise, you are not allowed to have a cell phone, or any other electronic device, with you during tests or examinations. Unauthorized possession of such a device during a test or examination constitutes an academic offence.

Use of Laptops, Tablets, and Smartphones in the Classroom: King's University College at Western University acknowledges the integration of new technologies and learning methods into the curriculum. The use of electronic devices such as laptop computers, tablets, or smartphones can contribute to student engagement and effective learning. At the same time, King's recognizes that instructors and students share jointly the responsibility to establish and maintain a respectful classroom environment conducive to learning.

The use of electronic devices by students during lectures, seminars, labs, etc., shall be for matters related to the course at hand only. Students found to be using electronic devices for purposes not directly related to the class may be subject to sanctions under the Student Code of Conduct; see https://kings.uwo.ca/sites/2025/assets/files/campus/Kings\_Code\_of\_Student\_Conduct.pdf

Inappropriate use of electronics (e.g., laptops, tablets, smartphones) during lectures, seminars, labs, etc., creates a significant disruption. As a consequence, instructors may choose to limit the use of electronic devices in these settings. In addition, in order to provide a safe classroom environment, students attending in-person class sessions are strongly advised to operate laptops with batteries rather than power cords.

6. Statement on Academic Offences

King's is committed to academic integrity. Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, is posted at https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_offences.pdf

It is expected that students will submit work that is truly their own, completed without external assistance (human or artificial) except as explicitly permitted by the course instructor. Check with you instructor to check which tools, including generative AI (ChatGPT, translation tools, grammar-checking tools) are permitted in each course. Note that although some courses may permit the use of such tools, it does not mean use of such tools is permitted in other courses.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system; see <https://elearningtoolkit.uwo.ca/tools/Originality Reports - TurnItIn.html>.

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

7. Copyright of Course Material

Lectures and course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, tests, outlines, and similar materials are protected by copyright. Faculty members are the exclusive owner of copyright in those materials they create. Students may take notes and make copies for their own use. Students may not allow others to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly (whether or not a fee is charged) without the express written consent of a faculty member. Unauthorized sharing of class content is subject to academic discipline.

Similarly, students own copyright in their own original papers and exam essays. If a faculty member wishes to post a student's answers or papers on the course website, they should ask for the student's written permission.

8. Use of Recordings

Participants in this course are not permitted to record the sessions, except where recording is an approved accommodation and/or the participant has the prior written permission of the instructor. Unauthorized recording and/or sharing of class content is subject to academic discipline.

9. Policy on Attendance

Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course, after due warning has been given. On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course.